"It is easier to keep up than to catch up." We are constantly faced with this admonition intended to spur each individual to better achievements. To the school itself, however, the warning seems to be merely a pleasant combination of words. When are we going to start to catch up so we can keep up with the times and with our fellow colleges and universities? Too long have we been carried along by the accomplishments of a few notables and one or two departments. The red herring of the past can be dragged only so far into the present before it becomes stale.

We have been promised too much with the realization of too little, and a once healthy attitude toward Millikin is fast being beaten into a state of lethargy by administrative complacency.

Next year we mark JMU's 48th birthday . . . and a new science building. Is this a new beginning, or will this one accomplishment be considered enough to last for another 50 years while we sink further into a state of educational coma?

MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY

DECATUR, ILLINOIS

It Was Good to Get Back Again

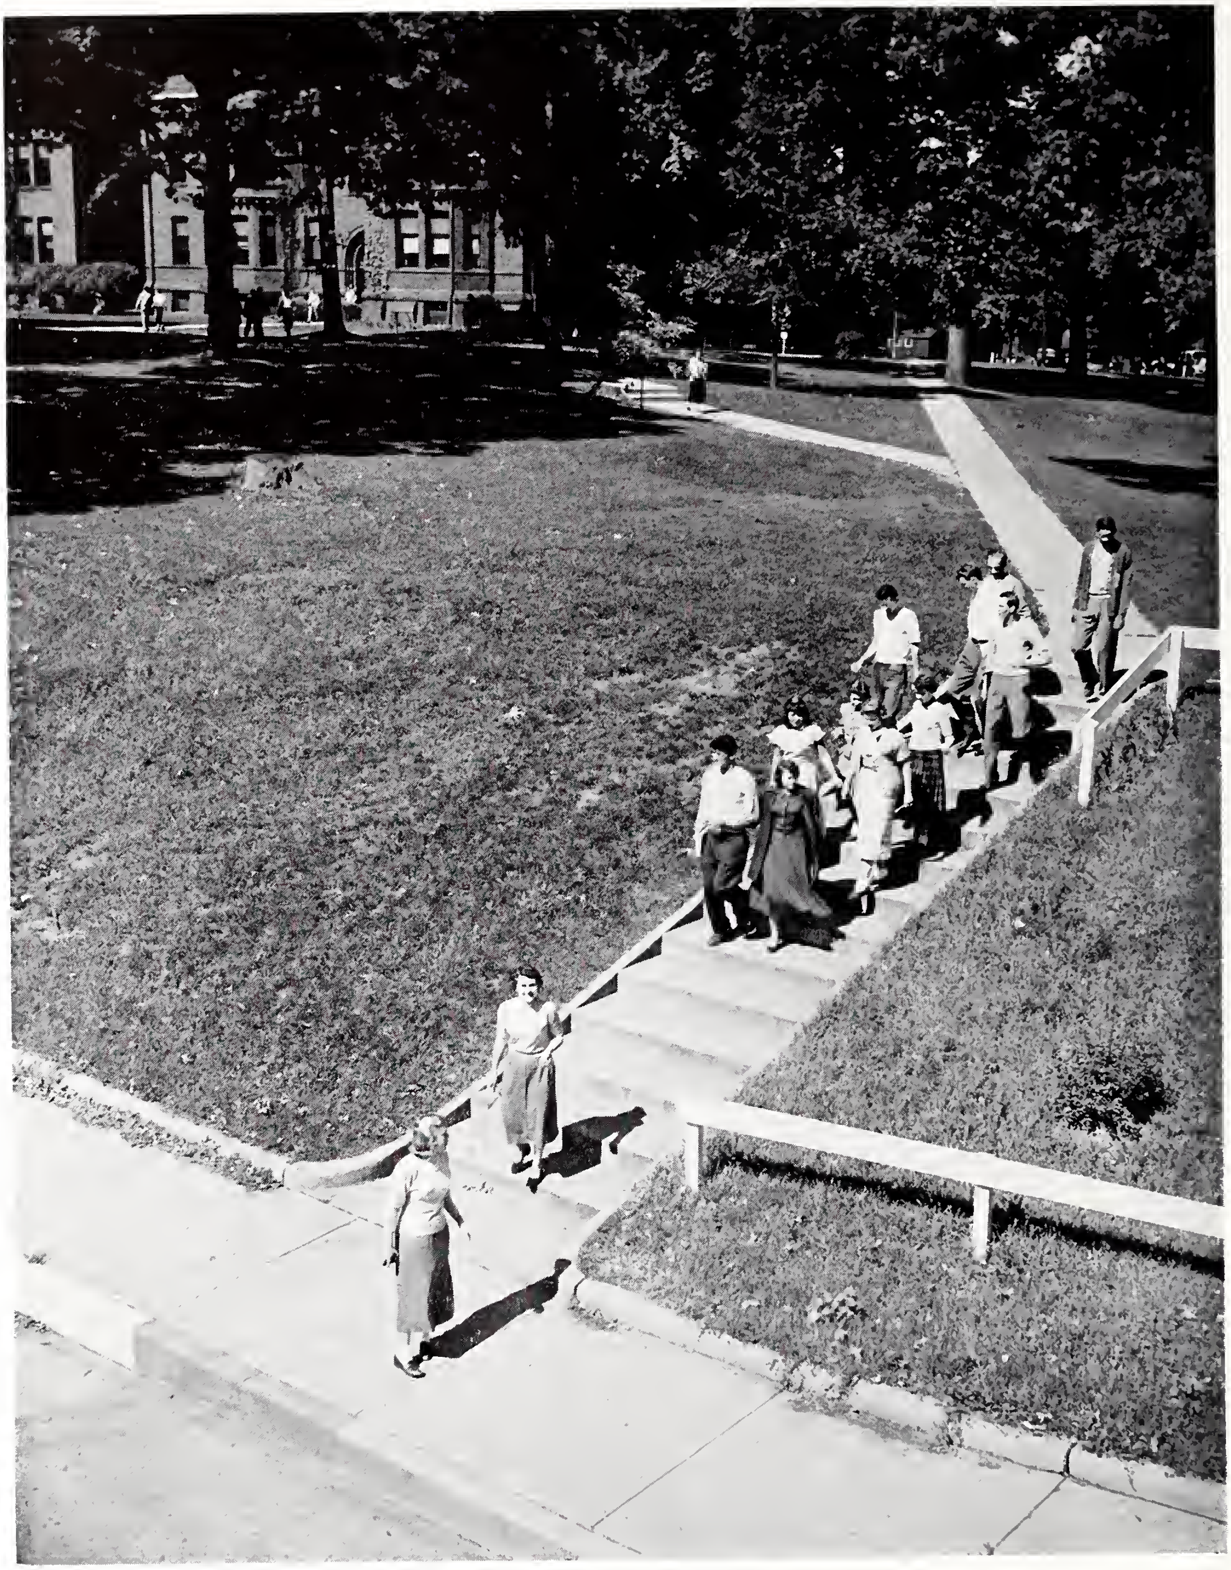
We Sweated Out Checks . . . Watched for News

We knew school had started when the subsistence checks finally came through. Fouled-up schedules, rush week, serenades, squirming in classes when it was lazy weather, picnics, greeting old friends and meeting new ones, bull sessions in the dorms . . . this was college.



Thronged to Our Corner Haunts . . .

Hard-Timed the Freshmen . . .

Remember Homecoming and the times we spent hashing over plans for house decorations and floats . . . changing them numerous times before final construction. Freshmen struggling to get rid of their beanies, the bonfire, variety show . . . and soon we'll be back — as alums.

And Sometimes We Even Studied . . .

Fought Crowds for a Dec . . .

We laughed at the old news in the weekly sheet, but we struggled for a copy just the same. What a battle to get through the between-class mob in the basement . . . smoke-filled halls . . . cigarette butts carpeting the floor . . . pilgrimages to the SUB for coffee . . . or a bridge game.

And Cheered the Big Blue

Remember the Parties . . . and Dances . . .

"All work and no play . . . "so we played. Friday afternoon clubs, balloon games and all that went with them. Dances—formals, masquerades, mixers, and just plain dances . . . invading the Barn afterward.

The Times We Hit the Airwaves . . .

Occasionally we really tried to make an impression on the outside world. We even went dramatic—and musical. Or we reached the "other" people through plays, the Millikin Sing, basketball games with the emphasis on faculty and foolishness.

PRESIDENT MALONE

The title "University President" usually carries with it the thought of the hard-to-get-in-touch-with man in the front office. Not so with Dr. Malone. An open door policy and a sincere eagerness to know the students has put him in the class of friend, both before and after he has given out the coveted diplomas.

ADMINISTRATION

DEAN MILLER

Perhaps one of the hardest jobs on a college campus is that of dean. He hears all the gripes and cries of injustice from both the faculty and students, and it is no small task to act as a mediator between the two. Although the situation has at times gotten pretty heated, Dean Miller has managed to cope with it to the satisfaction of both factions. His sense of humor and willingness to cooperate are indispensable aids in seeing him—and the students—through what otherwise seems to be a hopeless predicament.

DEAN FALVEY

Dean Falvey has seemed determined to prove to everyone that deans are human, and her success in the undertaking has proved worth her effort. Frequent appearances for coffee at the SUB and a phenomenal memory for names have brought her into closer relations with the entire student body.

In her first two years as Dean of Women she has made herself a universal campus friend and has endeared herself to all those with whom she came in contact.

Panhellenic Council

| | |
|---|---|
| President | Joan Riggs |
| Vice President | Carolyn Cramer |
| Secretary | Gloria Granert |
| Treasurer | Jean Cornwell |

Panhellenic Council, the governing body for the women's social fraternities is composed of the president and rushing chairman of each organization, with Dean Falvey as advisor.

In addition to their duties of making and enforcing rushing rules, they also hold some social functions of their own. The Council inaugurated the fall rushing season with a tea for the rushees; and, for the first time this year, brought it to a close after pledging ceremonies with a dinner attended by all of the members and new pledges of each organization.

A Panhellenic dance was given at the Hotel Orlando last November, and the Millikin Sing was held under the auspices of the Council.

Inter-Fraternity Council

Once a month members of the three male Greek fraternities meet to endeavor to cement relations between their organizations for a friendship that will last at least until they can meet again the next month. Two elected representatives and the president of each of the groups convene with Dr. Smith, Coach Keil, and Deans Miller and Ploenges for the furthering of better interfraternity relations.

This year the council joined with the Downtown Quarterback Club and sponsored a banquet honoring the conference championship basketball team. The notable point of the affair was that everyone had enough to eat.

Not to be outdone by the women and their Panhellenic Dance, the men threw an Interfraternity Ball at the Hotel Orlando with Sunny Sampson providing music. The turnout warranted the effort spent in making the occasion a success.

There are no set officers for the group, for the president of each fraternity is also president of the council the night it meets at his house for the monthly dinner and meeting. Although relations between the Greeks sometimes seem to be rocky, at least the members of th council are friends.

Standing: Hardy, Palmer, Sutherland, Dr. Smith, Harlan.
Seated: Noland, Eckman, Johnson, Dean Miller, Berry, Baker, Coach Keil.

Alpha Chi Omega

Parties . . . pledges . . . dances . . . all the things that combine to make college life interesting have added their flavor to Alpha Chi this year as it has with all the rest.

One of the big events this year was the holding of Alpha Chi state day in the local chapter. We played host to our alums and members of chapters throughout the entire state.

The formals, held at the Decatur Club in the winter and at Scovill's in the spring, elicited a feeling of success. Numerous teas were given for alums, pledges, mothers and dads, plus the open house held for the crowd at one of the football games.

Several girls took their place as leaders on campus. Curly Stone was in charge of freshman orientation week, Joan Riggs and Liz Schmalfuss, were chosen for Who's Who, Liz and Joan and Julie Young qualified for Phi Kappa Phi, and six girls were selected for Pi Mu Theta. Liz also graduated Magna Cum Laude in January.

Twila Strocher served as president of Sigma Zeta, and Katherine Mullinax had the same position in the Student Christian Association. Gloria Schweizer was secretary and Jo Faulkner, treasurer of WAA, and Curly Stone and Bev Long were co-chairmen for the WSSF carnival. Curly also served as secretary of the Student Council while Julie Young was vice president of the same group.

We also held several banquets during the course of the year and closed a good season with an honors day banquet given by the alums honoring the outstanding members of the chapter.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta regrets the close of another successful year in the chapter. Many activities have made it a memorable one.

The winter formal, "Winter Wonderland" was held at Scovill's, while the spring formal took place at the Orlando.

We were again awarded first place at Homecoming for our float with the theme "Chew Chew Carroll" as well as third place for our house disguised as Jimmy Millikin's hotdog stand.

At Christmas we had our annual pine party with the alums and mothers of the chapter.

HOT DOG
! OUR ALUMS ARE BACK !

Valentine's Day was the occasion for another party, and at Easter we feted the girls from the Welfare Home.

We held the scholarship cup for the second year in a row, and Dodie Koehler reigned over Homecoming festivities as queen. Ginee Happel, Marilyn Morthland, Phyllis Bridgewater, and JoAnne Williams were initiated into Pi Mu Theta, and Beth Hamblen and Carol Miller went to the top for Phi Kappa Phi.

Jewell Weber was elected to the presidency of Tau Chi Pi, Jody Collins became cheerleader, and Carol Miller entered the ranks of faculty by teaching Spanish for a semester.

Pi Beta Phi

The opening of school found the Pi Phis packed like sardines into a tourist home waiting the completion of the new addition on the house. We moved in just in time to show the alums returning for Homecoming through our most prized possession.

The recreation room was initiated at the Pi Phi Pow Wow honoring pledges and initiates. Other dances were the two formals, Christmas Belles and Tulip Time and another pledge dance, Blue Heaven.

Representing the chapter on campus, Barbara Barta was editor of the Millidek, Sandy Lukey, rustled up news for the Dec as society editor and Lois Shand and Mollie Bence were co-senior editors of the Millidek.

Mary Taylor was elected president of SAI, Mollie Bence was president of Pi Mu Theta, and Barbara Barta and Sandy Lukey qualified for initiation into the chapter. Barbara and Mollie were chosen for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, and Mollie was honored by Who's Who for the second time.

Zeta Tau Alpha

The Zetas returned to school last fall missing several of the old faces, but soon filled their places with new pledges at the close of rush week. The pledge dance was a Red Wheel Ranch dance decorated with a western theme. Our winter formal was titled Holiday Inn and was held at the Sportsman's Club. The next dance was a St. Patrick's day affair, and the dancing season was closed with our spring formal.

Nan Hoest took the lead in both Town and Gown plays, and Jean Cornwell was chosen for recognition by Who's Who. Annie Smith was elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, and Elinor Goodrich and Annie were both members of Pi Mu Theta.

The chapter acquired Tauny, our miniature dog, as a mascot who has given many of us considerable exercise.

In the line of service, we collected clothing for the Cunningham Orphanage.

Sundry teas, picnics, and banquets honoring alums, parents, and province officers helped round out a full year for Tau chapter of ZTA.

The Delta Sigs have managed this year to make their weight felt in almost every type of organization on campus. Sports is our strong forte, with 17 members on the football team, 12 in baseball, with Bill Smith as co-captain, eight men on the basketball A squad with captains for both this year and next, and 11 Delta Sigs on the track team.

Just to prove that the preponderance of athletes doesn't leave the chapter muscle-bound, our four dances proved that we aren't lacking in the social graces.

Our experiences in politics were energetic, with all the offices in the junior class going to Delta Sigs. Leadership is ever-present, and four brothers were chosen for Who's Who because of their qualifications as leaders and activity men.

In addition, the president and treasurer of the Student Council, president and vice president of the "M" Club, and business manager of the Decaturian are all members of Delta Sig.

Row 4: Butts, Shumate, Keeler, Hess, Glover, Eader, McCann, Vaughn, Dearborn, Novak, Leach, Kuny.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Homecoming, dances, initiation, walkouts, serenades, spring weekend, and numerous bull sessions all combined to make a full season for the SAE's this year. Rushing season ended with the reception of a pledge class which has not only entered heartily into the life of the fraternity but has also taken an active place in campus activities.

Several brothers entered the political ring and came up with offices, two in the freshman class, one for the sophomores, and two in the senior class.

Numerous others invaded the athletic field and secured themselves berths on the regular first string squads. Bob Harlan chained himself to a typewriter for a year as editor of the Decaturian, and John Olivero, Bob Pensinger, Clem Wright, and Jim Teckenbrock served as business managers and sports editors of the Millidek.

One shining light of the year was the appearance of definite plans for our new house, and hopes are high that it will soon be a realization.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

Tau Kappa Epsilon launched its fortieth year with the acquisition of an important addition to the chapter. Kapp joined the ranks of campus mascots and immediately let it be known that he would hold full sway over his domain.

Memorable was the second consecutive first place award for our house decorations at Homecoming as well as second place for the float.

We presented our dates with orchids at our orchid dance, "'Twas the Night Before Christmas Vacation." Less sumptuous, but equally as enjoyable was the spring formal, "Easter Dreams."

On the political front, Bill Sutherland landed the office of president of the sophomore class, Fred Edwards was freshman secretary, and Luke Wiss and John Winick were treasurers of the senior and sophomore classes.

In addition to all the new situations embarked upon this year, we continued to carry forth the traditions which have long been a part of TKE.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Rush parties, musicales, teas—these and many other activities marked a busy year for the members of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary music sorority.

The year started with a bang with rushing and pledging climaxed by the Rose Tea.

A huge red rose, the SAI flower, furnished a pretty addition to the Homecoming parade, and alumnae were welcomed back at Reception in the SAI room.

High spots of the last semester were the Rose dance, the SAI's annual Spring formal, senior recitals by the graduating members, and the Senior Banquet at the Decatur Club.

Phi Mu Alpha

Phi Mu Alpha came forth from the conservatory this year and made quite a showing with the travelling chorus, singing for groups here in Decatur and surrounding towns.

One of the biggest events of the year was the All-American Show in April with the group presenting compositions of American artists plus some numbers composed by chapter members.

Ugly Man contestant, Charlie Straub, made quite a splash with his following of a German band as they toured the campus and local hangouts for contributions for his candidacy for the coveted position of ugliest man on campus.

Two of the social functions of the group came in the form of dances, a pledge dance at the Leland Hotel; and the winter formal, Winterlude, at Scovill's.

Alpha Phi Omega

In its first full year of activity, Alpha Phi Omega has pulled itself from the ranks of "ex-Boy Scout fraternity" up to an organization recognized on campus for its service and participation in school life.

The first big project of the year was the sponsoring of the Ugly Man contest which raised funds for the activities of the rest of the season. The members bought and installed basketball standards for the Boys' Opportunity Home, took charge of decorating the float for the Homecoming Queen and her court, sponsored the Christmas Seal drive here on campus, and took over the Southwest section of Decatur in the city-wide Red Cross drive.

The pledge class came through with the Sunday bop concerts instituted for the first time this year.

Membership is non-restrictive, and members of other Greek organizations may also possess an APO pin.

Millikin Independent Association

MIA has the distinction of having almost all its activities for this year be "firsts." This was the first year for pins, a pledge class, and initiation ceremony. It was the first year for the Millikin Independent Association to be recognized as an organization other than the Indees. MIA participated in the variety show for the first time, and sang in the Millikin Sing, portraying the inception of MIA on campus.

Another first is an alumnae banquet, a tradition with many other groups, but never before recognized as a part of MIA. The group sponsored its first formal at Christmas time, and plans are to have one formal dance each semester. The newest addition to the organization is the initiation of Barracks 77 as a meeting place and lounge for this group alone.

Student Council

|---|---|
| President | Phil Tinch |
| Vice-President | Julie Young |
| Secretary | Norma Stone |
| Treasurer | Paul Berry |

Hard work done by the Student Council has resulted in the launching of some worthwhile projects this year. The election system was finally cleaned up as was the back of the SUB. The writing of the by-laws for the year-old constitution has also gotten under way.

The Council has competently taken care of the countless "little" but indispensable matters which are brought up at every meeting.

Numerous social activities such as all-school mixers, the Sadie Hawkins dance and the Sweetheart dance were given as well as the Council-sponsored Variety show.

Second row: McClure, Morse, Bieler, Young.
Front row: Stone, Young, Cummins, Lukey.

Student Christian Association

Under the effervescent Digger Odell, SCA has proved a live-wire organization this year. Fall found the group located in its new lounge, a haven for members desiring worship, a place to study, or a bridge game. Weekly meetings drew the largest turnout ever, and a goodly number of these same people rose at the crack of dawn each day for morning devotions in the chapel.

The organization primed its members for future service in a leadership workshop. One of the biggest projects was the sponsoring of weekly entertainment and Sunday services at the TB San.

The group was under the guidance of Katherine Mullinax, president; Bill Tombaugh, vice-president; and Jean Kizer, secretary-treasurer.

Row 4: Fathauer, Loucks, Odell, Kincaid, R. Williams, Russell, E. Williams, Lewis, Boyd.

Row 3: Vrooman, Rice, True, Morris, Cox, Lebrecht, Hampson.

Row 2: Narvaez, Bolin, Barone, Heinzelmann, Hockman, Stricklen, Smith, Kizer, Armstrong, Ferguson, Baird, Drysdale.

Row 1: Frazier, Dvorak, J. Williams, Cotton, Morrison, Mullinax, Hamblen, Warnack, Holland, Robbins, Booher, N. Williams, Bezares.

Who's Who

Standing: Baker, Tinch, Steagall, Berry, Johnson, Thornton, Harlan, Teckenbrock.

Seated: Kriege, Bence, Miller, Cornwell, Hamblen, Riggs.

Recognition by Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities is an honor granted to fourteen Millikin students each year. It is a national organization with membership being based on scholarship, leadership, activities, and general over-all contributions to school life.

Pi Kappa Delta

Pi Kappa Delta is an organization designed to give students with a loquacious bent an opportunity to vent their thoughts in debate. The group competed at Normal and Charleston and attended a joint meeting of Illinois and Missouri provinces of Pi Kappa Delta. Bob King served as president; Eleanore Bieler, vice-president; and Dr. McNabb, faculty adviser.

Standing: Humphrey, Morgan, Aulabaugh, Harlan, Marsden, Dr. McNabb, Hewey, Helledy, Newman, Susler, King, Sachen, Roettenbacher.

Seated: Bieler, Lessman, Hall.

Conant Society

Conant Society is a literary organization for upperclass majors in English and outstanding students in associated curricula. This year the points of special interest were the sponsoring of Alan Lomax, the contest for original works by students, and the dinner at the end of the year.

Hans Roettenbacher served as president; Alma Appleman as vice-president; Forrest Tackett, secretary; and Mary Jane Dwyer, treasurer.

Tau Chi Pi

Once a month, women who are taking secretarial science courses meet to hear speakers or see movies designed to explain the future experiences of prospective secretaries.

This year the group had its annual Christmas party complete with white elephants at the Pi Phi house and went on two picnics. Jewell Weber served as president; Helen Stocker, vice-president; Ina Jedlicka, secretary; and Peggy Beach, treasurer. Miss Margaret Sparks acts as faculty adviser.

Phi Kappa Phi is the highest scholastic honor to be attained at Millikin. Paralleled to Phi Beta Kappa, it requires a 3.5 average for membership. This year, for the first time, Phi Kappa Phi had two classes of members due to the separate commencments in January and June.

Pi Mu Theta is a select group of junior and senior women—very select because membership is restricted to those who have hit the books and the teachers to maintain a 3.0 for their first three years in college. Mollie Bence served as President; Elizabeth Schmalfuss, Vice-President; and Barbara Hill, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Women's Residence Hall Council serves as the legislative and governing body for the residence halls, acting not only in matters of conduct, but having some social activities.

At the end of the year they produced a new constitution, the result of many hours of argument and compromise.

Betty Jones headed the group as president. Other officers were Melva Clayton, vice-president; Doris Lessman, secretary; and Helen Stocker, treasurer.

The future best cooks of America set their goal this year for service to others. First step was a Christmas party for the girls from the welfare home. One of the main projects was baking cookies for the raffle at the W.S.S.F. carnival. Casualties for this occasion ran high, for it was soon discovered that the cooks were gaining weight testing their wares.

Officers were: President, Virginia Happel; Vice-President, Sandra Lukey; Secretary, Pat Rebbe; Treasurer, Carolyn Frink.

Highlight of the year was a pilgrimage to the Annheuser Busch brewery in St. Louis.

Concert Band

The Millikin concert band has almost become a travelling band this year with trips to Hammond, Kenney, Pekin, Tremont, East Peoria, Pana, Mattoon, and Salem. In addition to these appearances, there were the two concerts, and participation with the Civic Symphony.

The band not only played at all the football games, but it branched out into a marching band with formations for between-halftime entertainment. Homecoming also saw the group footweary but still blowing.

Under the leadership of Howard Akers, director, the new brass choir and wind ensemble performed in several programs, displaying a new type of musical arrangements.

The band again performed for the student body in assembly, inserting humor into the usual concert type of presentation.

Under Mr. Akers' rather stern baton, the band has fared well and looks forward to another successful season next year.

Millikin Choir

The university choir started out the year with its first big performance in the fall giving The Messiah, a new edition from the original sources. Under the direction of Orville Shetney, the choir drew an audience of over 4,000 people for the oratorio, featuring faculty soloists.

Millikin's choir was honored by an invitation to sing for the Chicago Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall which proved to be one of the highlights of the year. The group was praised highly for its performance.

In addition to participation in weekly chapel services, the organization also banded together with the Millikin Civic Orchestra to present Vaughn-Williams' "Serenade to Music" in February.

The Decaturian has done a good job of reporting the news this year plus directing needed criticism to some factions and deserved praise to others. Although the average student maintains that there is no news in "that ole rag," he still can be seen every Friday, fighting the crowd to get a copy.

The entire appearance of the whole paper has been changed and made more compact.

Although some may never read the paper, many are always thankful for the Dec office—in which to play bridge.

COACH ALLAN

Our athletic department is ably headed by Ralph Allan who has been an active leader of the athletic department. Aside from his numerous duties as Director of Athletics, he has had time to assist Coach Keil with football, turn out a championship basketball team, and coach tennis and golf in the spring.

Mr. Allan is continually trying to better the athletic situation here at Millikin. He keeps a wide open eye for material in surrounding schools, and is continually visiting high schools to speak with good prospects.

He also realizes the need for proper equipment and has been a constant protagonist for a new field house.

There are numerous qualities necessary for an athletic director, and Ralph Allan seems to be Millikin's answer to the situation. He is continually pushing the athletic program, getting it the position it deserves in school life.

FOOTBALL

Under the guidance and drive of "Whitey" Keil, Millikin's football team went to work this fall. Hours of hard work were put in, and the team was ready for a big year, but it proved to be a disappointing one. Winning two, losing four, and tying one was the sorry result. We just seemed to hit the teams that were too strong and had too many reserves. There seemed to be no answer to the dire problems that faced the team.

Coach Keil tried every conceivable idea. New plays, new defenses, new offensives were tried to little avail. The team worked hard, the coaches worked hard, but lack of sufficient material seemed to be the problem.

However, a building process which the athletic department started last year is not accomplished overnight or in one season. Experience is the one valuable item the team gained. Several good freshmen and sophomores got the much needed experience, and at spring practice this year a new spirit was instilled. Coach Keil and the team are waiting expectantly and eagerly for next fall and another season on the gridiron.

BASKETBALL

Pappy

Six returning lettermen were the basis for Coach Ralph Allan's basketball team this year. The practice sessions began in the fall and by the time the first game was here we had a basketball team we knew we would be proud of—a scrapping, fighting ball team headed by high scoring Scott Steagall and Captain "Pappy" Ormond. The team faced a rough schedule, but came through with flying colors. As the teams in '47 and '48 had done, the team this year did; they won the conference championship. Facing good teams the entire season the Big Blue fought right down to the wire and came out on top. It was the spirit of the entire team that impressed the crowds, and it was this same spirit that carried the team over a few rough spots in the schedule.

The season started with seven returning lettermen. By mid-season one had dropped from the team and another regular had left. Coach Allan had to manipulate, and finally ended up using a freshman to fill the vacant spot.

Playing 24 regular season games the Big Blue came out on the long end of a 14-10 split. Not an impressive record, but there were five games lost by less than six points.

Conference champs again! Setting records seemed to be a habit with Millikin this year. Scott Steagall led the team in this field. In the last two games of the year he broke the individual scoring records for the conference. At North Central, Scotty scored 36 points, breaking the conference record. In our next game with Western, he went on to a new individual record of 37 points. General opinion of the fans this year was, "Scott Steagall, All-American."

Other records were highest Millikin score of 97 points, made against Western, most points in a game 162, the Western game, the doubtful record of most points scored against us with 89 scored by Evansville, and most points scored in a season by Millikin teams, 1513.

Taking the conference meant a play-off for the honor of going to Kansas City, our first opponent being the mighty Eastern. Twice in the regular season the Eastern team had outscored us, and they turned the trick the third time in the play-off. It was disappointing but we knew our team had gone down scrapping. Fighting to the wire, win, lose, or draw, was typical of the Big Blue this year, and it resulted in a rousing knock-down season with thrills aplenty, and a conference championship to remember.

This was the first year for Jack Allen as coach of the Little Blue squad. It proved to be an undertaking of considerable proportions for Jack had a crew of incoming freshmen to work with. Playing eight games through the season, the team won only one game. There were frequent changes in the lineup and a good combination couldn't seem to be found.

The "B" squad did come up with good prospects for next year though. Harry Dubinick, Dave Richardson, and Frank Woodard look like prospects who might see some action with the Big Blue next year. Looking ever forward, the season might not have been successful from the point of games won, but the prospects for the future are a valuable achievement.

CONFERENCE

Opening the 1949-50 season away from home, Millikin journeyed to Normal to play its first game. Taking an early lead, the Big Blue had to fight to the closing seconds to keep the game from going the wrong way. After the first game the squad went on to win its second contest of the year. At this point, however, they started on a losing streak of four games. Just before Christmas vacation, Scott Steagall was put out of action with blister infections on both of his feet, which proved to be a serious blow to Coach Allan and to the rest of the team. Though absent for several games, Scott soon returned in good shape and went on to rack up enough points to break the conference individual record. With his return Millikin went on a five game winning spree and carried on to the conference championship.

There were many good games this year but undoubtedly the two I. C. games will be the longest remembered. Victory is sweetest when it is over arch rivals such as I. C. represents to us in athletics.

Journeying over to I. C. and beating them 60-49 and then trouncing a revenge fired ball club 76-61 ten days later was enough to make a successful season in itself.

CO-CAPTAINS DUNCAN AND SMITH

Led by co-captains Chuck Duncan and Bill Smith, Coach Keil's baseball aspirants opened practice in the gym early in March. Suffering from lack of good weather and sufficient opportunity to see the fifty candidates work properly, Coach Keil left with the team on the Southern trip in April. Playing five games, the Blue returned with three victories and settled down to try to recapture the conference championship they held last year. Lettermen Bill Smith, Chuck Duncan, Dave Messenger, Fred Conville, Cy Wadzita, Ken Schroeder, and Bill Sutherland were back to help out. Plenty of action, hustle and spirit marked the early season and carried through to the end.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS 1950

Coach Whitey Keil had enough weather and sifting problems thrown at him this year. Undoubtedly his worst problem was the sore right arm of "Duke" Messenger. "Duke" was a lettering freshman last year, and was expected to be the mainstay of the pitching staff this season.

However, on returning from the Southern trip he still was bothered by a bad arm and had the whole team worried.

The team represents a strong defensive outfit. Williams, Conville, Laedtke, and Lewis in the infield, Captain Bill Smith catching, and Duncan, Kinkaid, and Wadzita held up the outfield.

At this writing the team is shaping up fine and is looking for that conference pennant again.

Coached by Jack Allen, and captained by conference champ Jim "Jeeter" Lester, Millikin's track squad started off the 1950 season by a rousing meet with St. Louis University. Showing much promise in early spring workouts, the track men are proving advance notices. There are some spots on the squad that could use reinforcing, but Coach Allen believes he has a sound team with which to enter his well-rounded schedule.

With letterman Lester leading a solid group of experienced men, and an outstanding freshman group led by John Luttrell and Jack Shepard, there is little doubt but what Millikin is in for one of the most exciting track seasons of recent years.

The team, coupled with an enthusiastic student body, will give several afternoons of thrills and enjoyment this spring.

M CLUB

Under the leadership of "Red" Johnson and "Whitey" Keil, the "M" Club was reorganized this year. Once again the club was the active body it was before curtailment during the war. It draws its members from the ranks of the lettermen of Millikin. These men letter in various sports and are united into one body by the "M" Club.

Officers are elected each semester. Bill Smith was the able president until February this year, and his position was filled by Scotty Steagall who will remain in office until the end of this semester. Vice-President is Jim Lester. Smitty lettered in baseball, Scott in basketball, and Jim in track.

Last year the club adopted a plan to sponsor a memorial basketball game in order to establish a fund to aid a deserving letterman. The Joe Catlin Memorial Benefit games honor one of Millikin's outstanding stars of the past. This year both games were held during the Christmas vacation and augmented the scholarship fund considerably.

This season the "M" Club introduced an innovation in the form of blue caps with white "M's" for members only. The hats were a lively addition to a campus that needed some spark of color.

It's good to have the "M" Club back in action, adding to campus life. It is a necessary part of Millikin, and we expect a great deal of it in times to come.

Millidek M Man

"M" MAN

"Big Red" Johnson, "Swede" as he is often called, has been picked by the Millidek staff as this year's "M" Man. The "M" Man choice is based not only on athletic service, but on scholarship, extra-curricular activities and school spirit. "Red" has been a popular figure around the Millikin campus since 1947.

He hails from Oak Park, Illinois and earned his "M" in athletics on the football team. He is an ever pleasant, jovial person. A member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, "Red" was the president of the organization his last semester. In football he received recognition on two all-conference teams.

His abilities were recognized not only by his schoolmates, but the administration thought enough of him to place him in the school's public relations department.

Good sportsmanship and activity in intramural events are the basis for selecting the senior sweater girls. The girls are members of W.A.A. and qualify by accumulating 1500 points throughout their four years of intramural sports participation. Seniors are the only ones eligible, and they are presented with "M" sweaters as tokens of the school's appreciation for their activities.

W. A. A. Girls

Carol Miller, senior from Decatur, and Carol Gerken, senior from Belleville, were elected co-W.A.A. girls for 1950.

The W.A.A. girl is selected for her contributions to the W.A.A., scholarship, leadership, and campus activities. This year the Women's Athletic Association voted on Carol Miller and Carol Gerken and found that they were both of the high standards the association sets for the W.A.A. girl.

Carol Miller is an active member in Delta Delta Delta sorority, the Spanish Club and W.A.A. She is a Spanish and physical education major.

Carol Gerken is an independent with four years at Millikin behind her. She has been active in some manner in the W.A.A. throughout the entire time. She too is a Spanish major and was the Indees manager for the past year.

The Millidek is proud to present the W.A.A. girls for 1950, Carol Miller and Carol Gerken.

JOHN LOVES MARY

Town and Gown opened JMU's 1950 "theatah" season with the rousing "John Loves Mary," providing a packed house with an evening full of laughs.

The play revolves around the problems of a returned veteran in attempting to marry the girl he left to wait for him until the war was over. The wedding plans are complicated, however, with the appearance of John's wife, a girl whom he married in Europe so she could enter the United States to marry his buddy. The "friend" has fouled up the works by getting himself another wife, but love finds a way, and the romantic story is completed happily.

Nan Hoest and Bob King turned out a sterling performance as Mary and John, and Bob Scherer proved to be a real master at the dramatic arts as the buddy in his stage debut. The entire cast was to be commended for an evening of good entertainment.

CAMILLE

Nan Hoest and Bob King returned to the boards in the spring as the leads in "Camille." Both Nan and Bob proved their acting ability by being able to turn from their fall comedy portrayal to the serious type of drama known in "Camille."

"Camille" is the tragic love story of a man of fine family position who loves a girl with a bad reputation. His father appeals to Camille, and his pleas force her to swear that she will break up the affair and cause her lover to hate her.

Although she is successful in carrying out her promise, Camille's deep love for Armand aggravates an illness that has been present with her for a long time. Her health declines to the point where she is bedfast, and she dies just as Armand has been told the truth by his father and rushes to claim her love.

One of the highlights of the play was the costuming. Herbert Joys designed the dresses and supervised their construction, the result being a blaze of beautiful gowns of the period, adding considerably to aid the mood of the play.

Pardon Us

IF OUR PRIDE IS SHOWING!

¶ For 45 years Huston-Patterson Corporation has been producing fine high school and college yearbooks . . . books which have won honors in competitive showings and many expressions of appreciation from gratified clients.

¶ But, since a 1949 annual produced in our plant took FIRST place in competition with entries from FORTY-ONE states, we think we may be pardoned if our pride begins to show.

¶ We're not too proud, however, to give a large share of credit to the school's staff and faculty advisors. Such success never would come without the long hours of painstaking care they devoted to the preparation of copy and layout.

¶ Yes, in the final analysis, it's co-operation that counts. Teamwork spells achievement in printing as well as on the football field or basketball court.

¶ Co-operation, teamwork — they are words which through too frequent use may have lost some of their meaning. But here at Huston-Patterson we still strive to give them their full import and significance in our yearbook printing as well as in all other phases of our business.

HEY! whattlewedo?

Plumbers who want to avoid trouble use Cash Acme Valves.

Trouble—and how to fix it! That means a mess of some kind, and if the plumber who made the installation is called back to fix it, he's in trouble himself.

A house located on a hill needs pressure reducing and regulating valves, because high pressures are hard on plumbing equipment . . . cause damaging water-hammer, noisy toilets, splattering faucets, real trouble sooner or later.

Selecting, installing, and maintaining valves is tricky business without complete know-how . . . sometimes a matter of life or death. Every result has a cause—and when disaster strikes, we know that somewhere along the line there was a man who didn't think through to what might happen before it did happen.

It pays to check—for high pressure leaks. Smart plumbers diagnose as they go.

Temperature and pressure relief valves should never be placed in the cold water line, because then heat can't get to it except by transmission—a slow process which allows the temperature of the water in the tank to become explosively hot before the valve has a chance to do its job. The guy at right says: "Why get into trouble? Just install the proper Cash Acme Valve in or very near to the hot water tank on the hot water line."

For twenty-five years, this company has been manufacturing quality pressure reducing and regulating valves, relief valves, automatic pressure controls for hot water space heating systems, etc.

Graduates of James Millikin University:

YOUR CITY IS YOUR BUSINESS:

Most of you will become business and professional men and women either in Decatur or in another city. As you become identified with your community, you will find that your city is your business, as well as the profession or other occupation by which you earn your livelihood. You should, and will be expected to contribute your thinking and your efforts to the handling of those matters which will determine the character of the community in which you earn your living and establish your home.

You graduates who choose Decatur for your home town are welcomed for your youth, your enthusiasm, your approach to our community problems, and your willingness to work toward their solution. At this commencement period of 1950, we as "old citizens" invite you to turn your thoughts to the following matters of Decatur's "unfinished business" . . . matters which have a vital effect upon the character of the future Decatur. We urge you, first, to become informed about them, then to join other citizens in working on them for a Greater Decatur in which to live and do business.

Conservation of Lake Decatur as the source of the city water supply and as a recreation center

Parking

Airport buildings and air service

Low rent housing

Job development

Water works improvements

Water mains outside the city

Extension of sewers both within and outside the city

Annexation of adjacent areas which are a part of the Decatur community

Building code revision

Modern street lighting

Schools

Development of a major street and beltline system

IT CAN BE DONE

. . . but don't try it!

Sometimes it's possible to break all the rules—and get away with it.

But for most of us, most of the time, the rules hold — especially when it comes to saving money.

The first rule for a successful life is to SAVE; the second rule is to SAVE REGULARLY.

Since lack of money is so often a cause of worry and unhappiness, one way to eliminate many of our problems is to have money when it is needed. Regular saving is a good way to have money for emergencies.
